

Piri Deri

This is my oldest sister Piri. The photo was taken around 1909 in Eger. Piri was born in 1906. She was a very beautiful girl. She always ran away from home. Once she ran away to the neighbors and they were standing over her at a loss, wondering who she could be. She was a nice blond little girl and she could already talk, only she couldn't tell what her name was and who her father was. And finally they found out who she was because she kept saying, 'He is always ironing, he is always ironing'. And so they realized that if he was always ironing, she could only be the tailor's daughter.
