

In A Park

This picture was taken in one of Bratislava's parks, sometime between 1934 to 1936. From right to left, it shows my mother, Helen F., me, Henrich, my grandmother, Jolana Schwartz, and my cousin Richard. Standing at the far right is my aunt, Irena Ehrenreichova.

My mother's sister Irena Ehrenreichova lived in Sahy after getting married. She had two children, Stela and Richard. Except for her husband, they all died during the war. He remarried, and then died of a heart attack. His second wife emigrated to Israel.
