

The Wedding Of Margit Leimseder, Blanka Gallo's Sister

This is the wedding of my sister Margit Leimseder and Erno Frankel.

The second person on my sister's left is our mother Maria Leimseder. One of my brothers, Hugo, is standing at the very back with a hat on his head. The wedding was in Miskolc in 1940.

Margit was born in 1914. Her husband Erno was from Kassa (today Kosice, in Slovakia). He had a paint store in Slovakia, after he went back to Kassa - as that was on Hungarian territory -, he traveled.

(Margit's home) was completely kosher. She did not have (a wig) but at home, in our parents' house she wore a scarf.

And it is typical of the family's closeness that in the final year (in 1944) Gitta, like Margit, came back with her children so that they could be with the parents. And they were all deported together - and Margit and her little daughter did not return.