

The Alhalel Family Today

This photo was taken at a restaurant in Vidin on the occasion of my 80th anniversary in 2003. It shows my wife Gitli, my two daughters and I. The blond woman is Streya, the brunette is Sheli. On the right is Veska (I don't know her family name), who is the mother of Daniela Puncheva, i.e. the mother-in-law of our grandson Lyubomir, the son of our daughter Streya. I have two children, whom I love very much. The elder one, Streya, was born in 1949. She graduated from the Chemical Technical School in Vidin. She has been working as a chemist in the local meat processing plant for a number of years. My younger daughter Sheli was born in 1954 and is a construction engineer. Unfortunately, she doesn't have children. But I have grandchildren from Streya, who also worked for a long time in the municipality in Vidin. Her children are Lyubomir Punchev and Yanita Slavcheva. Yanita now lives in a kibbutz. She has a daughter, Viara. She has a family in Northern Israel. My grandson Lyubomir, who is director of Bulbank in Sofia, also has children. They are Konstantin Punchev and Mihaela Puncheva.
