

Sara Lazar With The Women's Organization In Kyustendil

This is what was once called 'La Kita' [classroom in Ivrit]. This was a kind of women's organization. At that time women in Kyustendil did not work and they used to gather on holidays. They had this photo taken somewhere on Hisarluka hill near Kyustendil. My mother, Sara Lazar, nee Bohor, is the only person I can recognize here. She is in the second row from the top, fourth from the left. I don't know any of the others. I also don't know the exact place the picture was taken.