

Mesko Nikolai Presenting An Award

This photograph was taken in 1960, when I was the director of a factory and those are bricklayers. I'm the one on the left. I was director and was presenting some award. The photo was taken in Mukachevo in the construction company club. We met in the club once a month. The main themes of our meetings were various tasks and responsibilities.