

This is the second page of the testament of my father Joseph Saltiel, which he made on 28th March 1943. It was made at our home, within the ghetto, because my father was already very sick with cancer and he could not go to the notary's office.