

Thomas Molnar With His Daughter And Granddaughters

This picture was taken in 2005 at the bar mitzvah of my grandson Simon Molnar, on the balcony of the hotel in Sydney where it took place. From left to right: my daughter Vivienne Graeme, one of her daughters Melissa, I, and Vivienne's other daughter Jessica. Vivienne graduated from university, she is a psychologist. But she has never worked in her profession. She is extremely capable, she has 20-25 apartments, and she lets them out, manages them. Her husband is an electrical engineer, he also has a small factory, but in my opinion he only loses money by it. But my daughter made them prosperous. Vivienne has two daughters. Jessica is 22 years old, and Melissa is 19. Jessica is studying at university, she wants to become a physiotherapist. She is in the 1st year. Melissa has just finished high school.
