

Moris Florentin

This is me probably less than three years old. I am sitting on a bike that we had for both my brother and me. It is a strange bicycle, it has three wheels. This picture was taken in our garden in the house on Gravias Street, the house of Cohen the dentist who was quite famous in Thessaloniki. He had two sons that I used to play with a lot when I was young.